

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Catherine Helferty

Does Long-Term Headphone Use Affect Hearing Ability?

Division: Health Sciences
Category: Intermediate Region: Renfrew County City: Douglas, ON

School: St. Josephs High School

Abstract: I conducted six simple hearing tests on 101 high school students to determine if there is a correlation between long-term headphone use and reduced hearing ability. Results indicate that headphone users are more likely than non-users to exhibit poor hearing in the extended high frequencies.

