The Winds of Change: The Superior by Nature Energy Plan

Division: International / Environmental Innovation

Category: Senior

Region: Northwestern Ontario

City: thunder bay, ON, Thunder Bay, ON

School: St. Ignatius S.S.

Abstract: Thunder Bay, Ontario, is known for its natural resources. In particular, Lake Superior, forestry, and mining. However, the wind is a widely untapped resource that could prove to be beneficial by exploitation in this region. An analysis will be presented underlining the many aspects of exploiting wind power in the Thunder Bay region. Lastly, all economical, environmental, mathematical, and statistical aspects will be underlined.
