

ESPC 2009 - Winnipeg (Manitoba)

Youssef Hassanien

Going Green Ski-Seff

Division: Sciences de la santé / Innovation environnementale

Catégorie: Intermédiaire

Région: Northern Manitoba

Ville: Thompson, MB

École: R.D. Parker Collegiate

Sommaire: The Ski-Seff is an environmental friendly project. It's power by dynamo which, wind and peddling. It will also use photocells, solar panels that can charge the battery. At night, charged by electricity. In morning by the sun. Driving will charge through the dynamos by the wind. if the batteries dead, you will peddle to turn the dynamo which will charge the batteries.

Biographie

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Youssef Hassanien. I am originally from the pharoes land. I'm 14 years old and I am in grade 9. I attend R.D. Parker Colligate in Thompson Manitoba. I'm in band and I play Drums. I have one younger brother. I am a brown belt karate player and I play basketball. I am a social person and I love travelling, camping, hunting and fishing. I am an outdoor person and I like adventure. I am a handy person that uses tools. I can put flooring, painting and other stuff. You can count on me. I am looking forward to be an engineer. I like cars and invention. I like computer and I can work with Auto CAD. I am a fast learner.