

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

David Martin

Medieval Siege Weapon

Division: Engineering & Computing Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Peace Country

City: Rainbow Lake , AB

School: Rainbow Lake School

Abstract: After building a trebuchet, I experimented to find out what caused it to fire the projectile the furthest. I examined mass and position of the counterweight and position and tautness of the sling. Each variable affected the arc of the projectile and the distance it flew.