

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Tara Moore

Oil Spills

Division: Earth & Environmental Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Halifax

City: Shad Bay, NS

School: Brookside Junior High School

Abstract: This project tested different sorbents placed in oil-contaminated ocean and fresh water, determining which sorbent picked up the most oil in the least amount of time. These oil soaked sorbents were then burned to find the most efficient fuel source by measuring the burning time and the heat emitted.