

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Stephanie Mack

A Whale of a Wing

Division: Engineering & Computing Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Ottawa

City: Ottawa, ON

School: Henry Munro Middle School

Abstract: To study wing shape affecting lift, different shaped wings were made from balsa. To compare lift, distance between airflow source and airborne wings were measured. Traditional wings with greater surface area improved lift. The humpback whale pectoral flipper wing was best for lift. Studying nature can provide improved wing aerodynamics.