

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Jean-Marc Guindon

Electric Rocks

Division: Earth & Environmental Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: New Brunswick

City: Bathurst, NB

School: Superior Middle School

Abstract: The purpose of my project was to see how the electrical properties of different rocks and minerals could affect the distribution of the electrical field underground. I was trying to see if these properties could affect the field enough to show a difference in voltage on a voltmeter.