CWSF 2010 - Peterborough, Ontario

Plastic Milk

Division: Physical & Mathematical Sciences
Category: Junior
Region:
City: , School:
Abstract: Turning warm milk into natural "plastic". A precipitate is formed when milk is heated and vinegar is added in small quantities. This natural plastic can be used for environmentally friendly toys after it is molded into desired shapes.

Youth Science Canada
PO Box 297
Pickering ON L1V 2R4
www.youthscience.ca / info@youthscience.ca
416-341-0040