

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Gillian Haugen-Koechl

Tree Bark vs. Bacteria

Division: Health Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Northern British Columbia

City: Charlie Lake, BC

School: Charlie Lake Elementary School

Abstract: Long ago the natives used bark decoctions to treat open wounds. I made five different types of tree bark decoctions to test their ability to fight bacteria. Problem causing bacteria were collected from different sources to test the decoctions. The results were amazing!

Awards	Value
Dr. Michael Smith Innovation Award - Junior Sponsor: Canada Foundation for Innovation	$500
Total	$500