

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Ashley Doyle

Blame it On Your Parents?

Division: Health Sciences

Category: Intermediate

Region: Prince Edward Island

City: Cornwall, PE

School: Bluefield High School

Abstract: My project investigated the possibility of a correspondence between parental age upon conceiving a child (predictor variable) and specific personal characteristics of the child later in life. My results indicate the existence of a correlation between the predictor variable and the child's Multiple Intelligence, Learning Style, Personality Type and Academic Success.

Awards	Value
Canadian Psychological Association Award - Intermediate Sponsor: Canadian Psychological Association	$200
Statistical Society of Canada Award - Intermediate Sponsor: Statistical Society of Canada	$600
Honourable Mention - Health Sciences - Intermediate Sponsor: Canadian Institutes of Health Research	$100
Total	$900