

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Haley Doherty

Does Music Make You Smarter?

Division: Health Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Prince Edward Island

City: Charlottetown, PE

School: Queen Charlotte Intermediate School

Abstract: My research suggests that students in private and school music programs have much higher overall averages and math marks than non-music students. This reinforces the research suggesting that music training increases spatial temporal reasoning skills, that musicians have bigger brains and that musicians use both sides of their brain.