Dress to Impress!

Challenge: Discovery

Category: Senior

Region: Wood Buffalo

City: Fort McMurray, AB

School: Westwood Community High School

Abstract: This experiment was designed to examine the effects of a figure of authority's dressing style on the quality of work of individuals within specific age ranges. Two classes of students in various grades were visited wearing formal and informal clothing, and were given an easy assignment. They were marked based on a rubric detailing several important factors such as completion, organization, and creativity/colouring.

Biographies

Heli - My name is Heli Patel and I am a grade 11 student at Westwood Community High School. I look forward to new experiences and ideas. I have actively participated in Science Fairs and math competitions since a young age and thoroughly enjoy both courses. Throughout my school years, I have put in a large effort maintaining a healthy average. I also participate in a variety of groups, and volunteer activities. In the past, I volunteered as an Environmenter, a program designed by the Municipality of Wood Buffalo where high school students educate children about the importance of the environment. I am also a tutor for improving the written and verbal...

Ashlesha - A typical teenager, absorbed into the world of high school, but with many stories to share. Hello! My name is Ashlesha and I am a grade 11 student from Fort McMurray, Alberta. Yes, that's right, home of the oil sands. I love to watch movies, shop, and try new things. I am very adventurous and I love travelling. Going on long walks and riding my bike are my favourite things to do in the summer. I live in a family of 4 with my parents and a ten year old brother. I have resided in three different countries so far and hope to be able to live in many more. I love experiencing new cultures, learning new languages and trying different foods. I am ...
