

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Ashley Andrews

Test Anxiety

Division: Life Sciences

Category: Senior

Region: Eastern Newfoundland

City: Conception Bay South, NL

School: Holy Spirit

Abstract: This experiment determined the effect of evaluation on anxiety levels. The anxiety level is linked with the amount of material that is remembered. The experiment included a memory test, followed by an anxiety questionnaire. This was repeated for 3 stress levels. The effect of stress on memory was not significant. The effect of stressful situations on creating anxiety was significant.