

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Arielle Maler

Learning Without Knowing

Division: Health Sciences

Category: Senior

Region: United Counties

City: Crysler, ON

School: North Dundas D.H.S.

Abstract: This project investigated implicit and explicit learning in children and young adults. It demonstrates that subjects who attempt to use explicit learning in an implicit learning task, have degraded performance. This suggests that rehabilitation and sports training should be optimized for the individual's learning style.