

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Kendra Murray

Ability to Focus With Distraction

Division: Life Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Yukon Stikine

City: Whitehorse, YT

School: Golden Horn Elementary

Abstract: This project measures the ability to complete simple math problems while listening to different types and volumes of music. Both the time necessary and the number of answers wrong were measured. The results show that people focus better when they are listening to loud classical music. They get fewer answers wrong in a shorter time.