

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Christina Starko

Antioxidant vs. Virus

Division: Physical & Mathematical Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Western Manitoba

City: Brandon, MB

School: New Era

Abstract: Research has shown that some diseases, including cancer, may be caused by viruses. Antioxidants have been shown to help reduce and even prevent some diseases. By infecting a plant with a virus and watering it with antioxidants, this experiment's purpose was to see if antioxidants had an effect on viruses.