

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Erin Wanner

Nutrient Removal

Division: Engineering & Computing Sciences

Category: Senior

Region: Western Manitoba

City: Waskada, MB

School: Waskada School

Abstract: This project compares relations between nitrate usage in field crops, and environmental conditions. Using professional soil analysis taken before planting and after harvest, with comparison to yields, it was apparent that not all nitrate was used in the yield, but was leached out of the soil, or denitrified, due to laying water.