

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Steven Heidel

Conformity

Photo removed by request.

Division: Life Sciences

Category: Intermediate

Region: Prince Albert & Northeast Saskatchewan

City: Prince Albert, SK

School: Carlton Comprehensive High School

Abstract: This project studied whether age or gender affects people's likelihood to conform to the majority. Elementary students from grades three to eight were tested including subjects of different genders. It was found that boys conformed more than girls, and age had little impact on whether the subjects conformed.

Awards	Value
The University of Western Ontario Scholarship Bronze Medallist - $1000 Entrance Scholarship Sponsor: University of Western Ontario	$1 000
Bronze Medal - Health Sciences - Intermediate Sponsor: Canadian Institutes of Health Research	$300
Total	$1 300