

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Eric Pushie, Mike Parsons

Slicing the Temperature

Division: International

Category: Junior

Region: Cape Breton

City: Sydney, NS

School: Malcolm Munroe Memorial Jr High School

Abstract: This project tested the effects of temperature on the distance and direction of a golf ball. A series of heated and chilled golf balls were hit using both irons and drivers. It was determined that heat had a positive affect on the outcome of the ball whereas cold a negative affect.

