

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Bailey Strom

Left Write Left, But Are They Right?

Division: Life Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Sunset Country

City: Fort Frances, ON

School: J.W. Walker E.S.

Abstract: This project studied how handedness affected foot, eye, and ear dominance and memory. Through questioning and simple tests, dominance was established. Using pictures, data was gathered about memorization patterns. Results showed right-handed people to be more consistently same-side dominant than left-handed people. Memory data showed trends particular to handedness.