

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Tori Pescod, Chanel Pare-Bingley

Antiperspirants and Aluminum

Division: Life Sciences

Category: Senior

Region: United Counties

City: Cornwall, ON

School: Cornwall Collegiate & Vocational

Abstract: This project studied the relationship between antiperspirant aluminum concentration and aluminum ion permeability through a semi-permanent membrane. Measurements made using colourimetric determination and spectroscopy resulted in a direct relationship being observed. It is hoped that these results will support ongoing research to discover the link between aluminum and Alzheimer's.