

CWSF 2017 - Regina, Saskatchewan

Aditya Ayri

A Ray of Hope for Parkinson's

Challenge: Health

Category: Intermediate

Region: Wood Buffalo

City: Fort McMurray, AB

School: Holy Trinity High School

Abstract: My project is health-based innovational idea, that assists people diagnosed with Parkinson's disease write. Using a vibrating pen, people with parkinson's can improve the quality of writing, and have an easier time while doing it.

Biography

My name is Akshit Ayri, and I attend Grade 9, Holy Trinity Catholic School. I am interested in the Arts, and taking part willingly every year. In 2016, I was awarded 1st for Vocal performance 12 & under. I am keen on my Science Fairs every year. This year, my attention is innovation. I was interested this year on designing a certain product, that could make a possible difference in the world, and many people.

Awards

Value

Excellence Award - Intermediate - Silver Medal Sponsor: Youth Science Canada
Western University Scholarship Silver Medallist - $2000 Entrance Scholarship Sponsor: Western University	$2 000
Total	$2 000