

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

David Cameron

Can A Solar Powered Motor Really Work?

Division: Engineering & Computing Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Chignecto Central West City: Shubenacadie, NS

School: Riverside Educational Centre

Abstract: This project explores the concept of converting solar energy directly to mechanical energy. The goal was to create a motor, capable of doing actual work, which does not require any fuel or supplies to run and has as few moving parts as possible.

