

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Bryson Siemens

Eyewitnesses: Are they Accurate?

Division: Life Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Pacific Northwest

City: Smithers, BC

School: Smithers Secondary

Abstract: This project tested the rate that an eyewitness forgets over a period of time. Subjects were shown a video clip of some bullying and were then given a test to see how much they remembered. Two tests followed: one 3 days after the video, and one 10 days after the video. Subjects in this test were in grades six or seven.