

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Liz Brennan

The Goldeneye Project

Division: Engineering & Computing Sciences

Category: Senior

Region: Calgary Youth

City: Calgary, AB

School: William Aberhart High School

Abstract: This project identified the most significant abiotic or biotic population limiting factors for Common Goldeneye ducks of the Columbia Wetlands. Using standard deviation, the most significant factors were found to be the overall bird species abundance, indicating ecosystem productivity, as well as number of suitable nest trees.

Awards	Value
Honourable Mention - Earth & Environmental Science - Senior	$100
Sponsor: Petro-Canada
Total	$100