

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Tomesine Gulbaek-Pearce, Christine Twerdoclib

Soil Solarization

Division: Earth & Environmental Sciences

Category: Senior

Region: Qu'Appelle Valley

City: Buena Vista, SK, Regina Beach, SK

School: Lumsden High School

Abstract: Soil solarization can be used to either rid an area of vegetation in order to replant different species without competition, or to create a sterile piece of land for no growth. Our project used soil solarization as a means of eliminating vegetation under picnic tables to create an area of lower maintenance that still upholds the ethics of our greenspace.