

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Alexandra Chard

A Helping Hand

Division: Engineering & Computing Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Fraser Valley

City: Abbotsford, BC

School: Clayburn Middle School

Abstract: This device allows people to open doors without having to use their hands. This is useful when someone's hands are full, or if they have carpal tunnel syndrome, arthritis, or another handicap that limits the use of mobility. This inexpensive device can be applied to doors, helping to make daily life easier.