

ESPC 2006 - Saguenay (Québec)

Michael Staples

Enzymes in Action

Division: Sciences physiques et des mathématiques

Catégorie: Junior

Région: Western Newfoundland

Ville: Corner Brook, NL

École: Presentation Junior High School

Sommaire: This project studied the effect of light, temperature, acidity and sugar content on enzyme activity in four types of apples. The time for oxidation process was a measure of the enzyme activity. In the order of least to greatest effect was basic pH, exposure to light, temperature and acid pH.