

ESPC 2006 - Saguenay (Québec)

Andrew Wood

Wind Generators - Harnessing the Power of the Wind

Division: Sciences de la santé

Catégorie: Junior

Région: Bay Area

Ville: Oakville, ON

École: Oakville Christian School

Sommaire: The project objective was to create a device that harnesses wind to produce electricity for application without impacting the environment. Wind energy is renewable and an economical source of energy adopted by world nations as a global energy solution. Project results indicate that increased wind speed increases the resulting energy.