

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Morgan Hoot

Is it Worth the Risk?

Division: Life Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Cariboo Mainline

City: Kamloops, BC

School: Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Abstract: This experimental project's purpose was to determine if the six steps to handwashing were important, as well as, to test randomly selected students on their handwashings skills and knowledge. From the ten variables and controls it was determined that all steps to handwashing are necessary, with soap being the most important. Results from the subjects tested showed that demonstration of skills are important for retention.