

CWSF 2005 - Vancouver, British Columbia

Kelcey Pitzel, Nicola Gallagher

Winding the Way to the Top

Division: Physical & Mathematical Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Sudbury

City: Sudbury, ON

School: R.L. Beattie P.S.

Abstract: This project endeavours to explain the correlation between the number and length of blades on a windmill relative to the power that a windmill would generate. A design using string and a winding mechanism was utilized to test the hypothesis that longer blades and larger surface area would be more effective.