Detecting Narrative Authors

Challenge: Information

Category: Junior

Region: Kiwanis Southeast Alberta

City: Medicine Hat, AB

School: Centre for Academic and Personal Excellence

Abstract: My project involves the creation of a computer program that uses text analysis to determine the author of a writing sample. The program compares an unknown sample to a database of author's statistics.

Biography

I am Connor Deptuck and I am fourteen years old. In my spare time I enjoy using computers and volunteering at the local SPCA. My favorite things to do in the summer are biking and spending time outside. I am a competitive gymnast and spend many hours a week training. I am the treasurer of the Student Council at my school. My favorite subjects are science and math. I love to read any book I can get my hands on. I look forward to going to university, however I have not yet decided on a career path.
