

CWSF 2006 - Saguenay, Québec

Kirby Wildeman

The Outback Boot Heater

Division: Health Sciences

Category: Junior

Region: Fraser Valley

City: Abbotsford, BC

School: Clayburn Middle School

Abstract: The Outback Boot Heater was invented to dry boots after a day of camping and dirtbiking. By placing a copper coil around a fire, water inside heats up and circulates through the copper into a heater core. The heater sends heat through plumber's tubing into the boots and dries them.